The Great Communicator,

My brothers and sisters in Christ,

This week we enter into the season of Ordinary Time as we celebrate the Solemnity Of The Most Holy Trinity. This mystery is at the very heart of our Catholic faith...one God in three persons - Father, Son and Holy Spirit. A friend of mine recently told me that the Trinity is about how God communicates. At first, I didn't quite understand, however, there are a myriad of examples.

God, the Father, speaks to us through His very creation. Jesus Christ, the Son and master communicator, teaches us lovingly and mercifully so that we might better understand His will and proclaim it to others. Scripture is inspired which means that God breathes His life and truth into authors who are fully free. That combination is what makes this revelation. The Sacraments - Baptism, Confirmation and Eucharist, to name a few, are the signs and instruments whereby God communicates perfectly His wondrous love. That love, is Jesus Himself alive in the Holy Spirit. In fact, it's the Holy Spirit who edifies and animates the Church. In turn, the Church's essence is to serve the world and for our Parish, specifically the needs of the Tri-Valley. We could discuss how God communicates all day and night.

This gives perspective for my role to foster effective communications at the Catholic Community of Pleasanton. I'm not "The Communicator," but I realize that we need to put Him first as the source of communication and the message to be communicated.

We communicate with each other through a variety of mediums, but how engaged are we with these different types of communications? CCOP has over 75 active and vibrant ministries, as varied as we are as parishioners...everything from Grief Ministry and Ministry of Mothers Sharing (M.O.M.S.) to Military Peer Support and Women in God’s Spirit (WINGS) and everything in between.

In years past, the only way to know about these ministries and activities was through the weekly bulletin and perhaps, the bulletin boards and handouts in the vestibule. Both are still way for a parish to communicate, but technology has also yielded new tools for communication. Here are some:

Visit Our Website: Our website, www.catholicsofpleasanton.org, is an incredibly vast resource of information and activities here in the parish. You will find the most recent and timely information on the homepage as well as links to news and events.

Follow Us On Facebook: CCOP also has a Facebook page. You can search for it on Facebook or click on the Facebook icon at the bottom of every page on our website.

Watch The Weekly Videos: We publish weekly videos, the Pastor’s Message, where the readings from the weekend are interpreted and examined, on both Facebook and YouTube. You can find these short 3 to 4 minute videos by going to the homepage of the website and clicking on “Pastor’s Message”, which will take you directly to our YouTube channel. While there, consider subscribing to our channel so you are notified every time a new video is posted.

Join Flocknote: Flocknote is a new messaging tool that allows us to send updates about parish activities via email and text. It is simple to join and easy to use. You can find a more detailed explanation by clicking on the “Flocknote” icon on the homepage.

All of these things, old and new, are only tools to help us communicate with each other and the community as a whole about His message and presence in the Tri-Valley. I urge us all not only to listen, but actively participate in communicating His mission as we are called to do.

On an unrelated note, we welcome back Fr. Paul Minnihan from his time away. We missed your stewardship and pastoral guidance and are grateful for your return! Welcome back!

Also, a heartfelt thank you to Fr. Paul Vassar for his service at our parish over the last few months. Thank you!

With Peace,

Michael Harmon
Director Of Communications
