

Two Truths and a Lie

Supplies

None (or chairs)

Set-Up

Have participants sit in a circle

Goal

Learn each other's name and some interesting facts about each other (through the playing of the game).

Process

One individual volunteers to begin.

The individual begins by introducing themselves (name) and then shares three statements about themselves. Two are true and one is a lie (mistruth).

Other players decide, collectively, which of the statements is a lie.

Sharing player reveals which statement is a lie...allow for short discussions if needed.

Take the next volunteer and repeat the process.

Encourage everyone to participate.
